

Perinatal Program

The Perinatal Program works with pregnant women to offer health advice and teaching regarding their pregnancy and newborn baby. Nurses assess pregnant women for certain risk factors and offer case management as needed. They promote good health during pregnancy by providing counseling, education, arranging for prenatal visits, and offering referral to other health and community resources. Nurses also make visits after the baby is born.